The Rocky Mountain plays are heating up once again - Bakken is going strong, Powder River is picking up and for some, the DJ Basin is the hottest shale formation. Regardless of acreage position, operators everywhere are trying to figure out how to keep their artificial lift systems optimized and bring the most production online at the lowest costs possible. Keeping that in mind, assess how latest artificial lift designs are optimized for cost, efficiency & run time. Additionally, integrate smart controls to monitor systems and improve lift maintenance & reliability.

Our flagship Rocky Mountains' focused production optimization and artificial lift event returns to Denver this May, with a new and fresh focus on minimizing downtime through automation, maintaining a consistent route to drawdown and effectively managing gas handling, interference, sand control and corrosion challenges.

Key Speaker Companies: Bonanza Creek Energy, Anadarko Petroleum, Amerco Energy Resources, Murphy Oil, Merit Energy Company, EXCO Resources, Whiting Petroleum Corporation, North Plains Energy, Maverick Natural Resources, EP Energy, Bureau of Economic Geology - University of Texas
