TIPRO Celebrates 70 Years of Oil & Natural Gas Advocacy

Published February 2nd 2016, 9:25 am CDT

Host Prominent Legislative and Industry Leaders

February 02, 2016

The Texas Independent Producers & Royalty Owners Association (TIPRO), the leading voice of independent producers and royalty owners in Texas, is celebrating 70 years of advocating on behalf of the state's oil and natural gas industry. To help commemorate this important milestone for the association, TIPRO has assembled a well-rounded group of respected oil and gas executives, elected officials and industry experts to speak at its anniversary convention on February 22-23, 2016, at the Grand Hyatt Hotel in San Antonio.

Founded in 1946 by a group of 39 Texas wildcatters, TIPRO has grown to become one of the largest oil and natural gas advocacy non-profits in the country, currently representing more than 3,000 oil and gas professionals. Members include the largest producers in the state, hundreds of small to mid-sized independents, and mineral owners. TIPRO provides members access to policy and educational forums throughout the year, marketing opportunities, leading industry intelligence, affinity programs and extensive legislative and regulatory support.

Attendees of TIPRO's conference will learn about the latest strategies and technologies focused on driving operational efficiencies and increased oil and natural gas production under current commodity prices. Presenters will also offer important updates on legislative, regulatory and industry proposals relating to seismicity, new OSHA standards and the EPA.

"We are honored to welcome such a strong line-up of respected leaders for our annual convention to help celebrate seven decades of supporting, protecting and promoting the Texas oil and natural gas industry," said Ed Longanecker, president of TIPRO. "Our convention agenda reflects many of the priority issues facing our industry today from a policy, economic and operational standpoint."

TIPRO Convention Speakers Include:

- Harold G. Hamm, chairman and CEO of Continental Resources
- U.S. Congressman Mike Conaway
- Speaker of the Texas House Joe Straus
- Texas State Representative Drew Darby, chair of the House Committee on Energy Resources
- Texas Comptroller Glenn Hegar
- Raymond Welder III, CEO of Welder Exploration and Production, Inc.
- Bob Brackett, Ph.D, senior vice president & senior analyst of Bernstein Research
- Matthew Dowd, political analyst
- Peter Hennings, expert with Bureau of Economic Geology
- Wm. Stacey Locke, CEO of Pioneer Energy Services Corp.
- Damien Larson, partner of Myska and Vandervoort
- Rick L. Ingram, safety and health advisor for BP America

In conjunction with TIPRO's convention, the association will also be hosting a special forum featuring candidates seeking the open seat at the Texas Railroad Commission. Confirmed participants in the TIPRO Convention Texas Railroad Commission Candidate Forum include:

About TIPRO

The Texas Independent Producers & Royalty Owners Association (TIPRO) is a trade association representing the interests of over 3,000 independent oil and natural gas producers and royalty owners throughout Texas. As one of the nation's largest statewide associations representing both independent producers and royalty owners, members include small businesses, the largest, publicly-traded independent producers, and mineral owners, estates, and trusts. Members of TIPRO are responsible for producing more than 85 percent of the natural gas and 70 percent of the oil within Texas, and own mineral interests in millions of acres across the state.
