

https://www.news-journal.com/news/business/local/business-digest-sunday-march/article_fd4c58ec-221e-11e8-8ebd-37307217b133.html

Business digest: Sunday, March 11, 2018

Mar 11, 2018

Ribbon-cutting set for TCM Printing

The Longview Chamber of Commerce will have a ribbon cutting for TCM Printing, located at 320 E. Methvin St., the building behind Longview News-Journal Plaza, from 4:30 to 6 p.m. Wednesday.

TCM Printing is a unit of the News-Journal. It's a full-service commercial printer, offering services from design to printing and delivery. For more information, visit tcmprinting.com or call (903) 232-7245.

Texas Bank and Trust receives BBB award

The Better Business Bureau of East Texas named Longview-based Texas Bank & Trust the winner for the large business category during the 2018 BBB Awards Ceremony.

The BBB presented awards for excellence to three companies and one nonprofit entity out of a total of 24 nominees for exemplifying ethical behavior and displaying integrity in all aspects of their operations.

The ceremony took place Tuesday at the Green Acres Baptist Church Crosswalk Center in Tyler.

Stemco introduces Trifecta hub assembly

Stemco, which manufactures heavy-duty components and solutions for commercial vehicles in its Longview plant, has introduced the Trifecta Pre-Adjusted Hub Assembly.

Stemco developed the wheel-end system in partnership with Webb Wheel Products, a company based in Cullman, Alabama, that makes hubs, brake drums and rotors for medium- and heavy-duty trucks, trailers and buses.

“Trifecta is the latest innovation to combine safety, performance and confidence into one complete package,” Mark Holley, segment business leader of wheel-end products for Stemco, said in a statement. “By combining Stemco manufactured products with patented technology, the assembly is uniquely developed to extend wheel and life while providing unmatched contamination prevention.”

Holley said the product comes with a five-year/500,000 mile warranty for use on highways.

East Texas Energy Symposium set May 1

The ninth annual East Texas Energy Symposium is scheduled for May 1 at Devall Hall at Kilgore College, 100 Broadway, Kilgore.

The symposium will start at 10 a.m. with opening remarks by U.S. Rep. Louie Gohmert, R-Tyler, and include speeches by William Ambrose of the Bureau of Economic Geology, Phil Thompson of Commodity Risk and a keynote talk during lunch by state Rep. Drew Darby, chairman of the Energy Resource Committee.

The symposium costs $50 per person and includes lunch and a tour of the East Texas Oil Museum. Proceeds will benefit the museum, which is located on campus.

For more information, call the museum at (903) 983-8295.

— Share your news: Send news of new hires, job changes, promotions, awards, training completed and other news to the Sunday Business Digest by 5 p.m. Wednesday. Submissions may be faxed to (903) 757-3742; emailed to newstip@news-journal.com; or mailed to: Business Section, Longview News-Journal, P.O. Box 1792, Longview, TX 75606. For information, call (903) 237-7744.