I love a lot of Texas. Our Governor and R-led Legislature, not so much.

If you want to do something proactive about SB8, which effectively makes abortion illegal through vigilante bounty hunting, here are some things you can boycott. When you cancel your reservations, please let Abbott know: gov.texas.gov/... (https://gov.texas.gov/contact)

Austin

- Sept 15: Eric Clapton (two-fer against an anti-vaxer)
- Oct 1-3: Moto GP
- Oct 1-10: Austin City Limits
- Oct 22-24: F1 US Grand Prix
- Nov 5: Austin Food & Wine Festival
- Nov 20: Rolling Stones
- Mar 11-22 2022: SXSW
- Austin FC games

Dallas

- Sept 13: George W. Bush Portraits of America's Immigrants
- Sept 17-19: Fan Expo Dallas
- Sept 24-Oct 17: State Fair of Texas
- Oct 20: Andre Bocelli
- Oct 22: Jonas Brothers
- All sporting events

Ft Worth

- Oct 23-24: Bell Fort Worth Alliance Air Show
- Nov 11-14: Lone Star Film Festival

Houston

- Oct 9-10: Bayou City Art Festival
- Oct 18-21: Texas Contemporary Art Fair
- Nov 8-14: Houston Open
- All sporting events

San Antonio

- Sept 24-25: Jazz'SAlive Festival
- Oct 16: Schertz Historical Preservation Car Show

Boycott the Social Security Administration? That sounds like a tall order. Are you sure they're headquartered in Texas?

That's what I get for a late night copy and paste. I'll scrub it in the morning.

I just think that

Texas itself should be the proverbial

Turd in the punch bowl

I mean...they don't really try too hard to be smart

That speaks volumes to most of us

International Quilt Festival, Houston, October 28-31, 2021. And the wholesale quilt market that precedes it. I hate to hurt the industry that I've participated in for over 25 years, but this is a female dominated industry and they should effing stand up.

Recording artists who are holding concerts in TX should just cancel and refund tickets.

The Rolling Stones are still huge, if they canceled, others would follow.

Artists whose contracts don't allow them to cancel, could at least donate everything they receive, to groups that are doing 'underground railroad' work for women in need of abortions.

What about targeting web services that host vigilante tip lines?

I suppose the state can't host such a site or they would have one already. Something akin to sanctioning vigilantism?

There has to be "Terms of Service" associated with all potential web hosts, and if anything in that legalese jungle singles out using their platform for harassment, pow! They're off the site.

Next, any site set up for the express purpose of invading privacy and harassing suspected abortion seekers/providers should immediately be shut down by the Fed.

I don't understand the point. If any of these entities supports SB8 or have donated to the legislators that enacted it, I could understand. Otherwise, it makes as much sense as DK boycotting YOU because you're a Texan and you post here.
