

Figure 7 (a). Seismic line UTEP-1A with interpreted section on bottom. The dashed line is the fault location hypothesized by Phillips et al. (1986), SC is a slope change in elevation survey data, arrows indicate direction of reflector truncation, light lines highlight reflectors discussed in text.